DUTIES:

The Religious Affairs Career Field builds a culture of spiritual care and facilitates the free exercise of religion for Air Force members, their families and other authorized personnel. As experts in principles of religious diversity, religious accommodation, major faith group requisites, privileged communication and religious program management, Religious Affairs advise leaders at all levels on religious accommodation, ethical, moral and morale issues, especially for the enlisted force. As the enlisted component of Religious Support Teams (RST), Religious Affairs are uniquely trained in crisis intervention to include intervention counseling in moments of crisis, response to crises and suicide prevention and intervention. In addition, Religious Affairs are actively engaged and intentionally integrated into unit engagement plans to include unit meetings, commander calls, training with the unit and other unit activities. They also are trained in religious support to hospitals and mortuaries. Religious Affairs meet the diverse needs of military communities by managing religious programs, administrative, financial, and facility support. They recruit, train and organize volunteers for specific religious ministries. Religious Affairs conduct themselves in a manner that brings credit, pride and honorable distinction to the United States Air Force and its Chaplain Corps.
